

Hi, my name is Rob Viehman and I'm more than just the publisher of the Steelville Star-Crawford Mirror. I'm a native of Steelville and proud graduate of Steelville High School and the University of Missouri School of Journalism.

When I'm not busy bringing you the news, I enjoy the outdoors, especially canoeing, fishing, hiking and playing golf. I also enjoy home woodworking projects and recently took up ping pong again after not having played it since I was a kid. I've been known to enjoy an occasional bottle of wine and even brew my own beer once in a while. Old cars are also a hobby and I have a lot of fun driving my 1970 Ford Torino convertible and my 1969 Ford Ranger pickup.

I've also been blessed with tremendous family including two great parents, three wonderful kids and a loving wife. I still haven't figured out how I fooled her into marrying me, but I'm glad she did.

I try to stay active in the Steelville community and have been involved in 4-H, the Sports Club, Cardinals Booster Club, school committees, the Chamber of Commerce, the Steelville High School Alumni Association and much more.

I'm also a Presbyterian!

Come worship with me at the Steelville Presbyterian Church.
